production is reduced. To respond to this phenomenon, the option of using solar trackers is presented [6, 7]. Solar trackers are mechanical devices which orientate the panels to remain as perpendicular as possible to the sun's rays during the day, following the solar trajectory from sunrise to sunset [8]. Several

This paper presents the mechanical design of a single axis solar tracking system, as well as the electronic design of a system that to record in real time the electric power delivered by the solar tracker and to evaluate its performance. The interface was developed in Labview and it compares the power supplied by the tracker with the power supplied by static solar panel of the same ...

Colombia's rich wind and solar energy potential is estimated at 30 GW and 32 GW, respectively, according to SER Colombia, which is more than Colombia's current installed capacity of 18.8 GW. Of particular interest is La Guajira region, with world-class wind resources (average wind speeds of 9.8 m/s) and 18 GW of Colombia's wind power motor and a linear actuator, both of 12 volts, locating the solar panel at their corresponding angles. Finally the energy generated in the panels is directed to a charge controller PHOCOS CX-40 to be stored in batteries of 6V [10].
