

Renewable energy development is picking up speed, with Slovakia targeting 30% renewables in its energy mix by 2030, up from 21% in 2024. However, the transition is complicated by ...

Slovakia's veto is a symptom of the EU's energy dilemma: sanctions require unity, but member states' economic dependencies create fractures. Investors who focus on infrastructure projects ...

Slovakia currently receives part of its gas through a long-term contract with Russian energy giant Gazprom, which is valid until 2034 and secures roughly 3.5 billion cubic meters of gas ...

Abstract This article analyses the obstacles and opportunities that prosumers from the V4 countries (the Czech Republic, Poland, Slovakia and Hungary) perceive in relation to the ...

The breakthrough came after Slovak Prime Minister Robert Fico lifted his veto following written assurances from the European Commission regarding Slovakia's concerns about the planned ...

Cameroon Launches New Oil Refinery and Petroleum Depot in Kribi to Reduce Fuel Imports Cameroon has officially launched the construction of a new oil refinery and petroleum storage ...

Global Energy Independence Day:10 ????? ?? ?????? ?? ??? ??????? ?????? ??????????? ????? ?????? ????? ??, ????? ?????? ??? ????? ?? ????? ??????? ?? ??????????

Slovakia's natural gas importer SPP could continue importing Russian gas after the EU's end-2027 phaseout deadline -- under certain conditions -- as a result of an agreement reached by ...

Austrian solar technology firm Fronius has launched its new home battery system in Australia, completing its solar ecosystem. The Fronius Reserva offers seamless integration with existing ...

Slovakia's state-owned gas supplier, Slovenský plynárenský priemysel (SPP), plans to meet the entirety of its domestic supply needs with Russian pipeline gas in 2026, leveraging an EU ...

Strengthening of Slovakia's energy independence by diversifying key supply relationships For a country that relies on nuclear energy for over 70% of its electricity, establishing multiple ...

Slovakia's state-owned energy company, Slovensky plynarensky priemysel (SPP), is preparing to source all its natural gas imports from Russia's Gazprom next year despite EU efforts to ...

Energy independence slovakia

Web: <https://kindanewdecor.co.za>

