

Spread the Message At least four people have died following a cholera outbreak in the Dougui refugee camp in eastern Chad, according to a statement from the country's health ministry on ...

At least four people have died from cholera in eastern Chad's Dougui refugee camp, which hosts 20,000 Sudanese refugees. Health officials report 42 suspected cases and are urging strict hygiene measures. The WHO has ...

Improving the camp's water system is helping ensure all 40,310 residents have safe and fair access to clean water. "Having reliable access to water means everything to us. It's what has ...

More than two dozen refugees from Bhutan were left in a limbo after they were deported from the US to their home country, but the Himalayan nation rejected them, leaving them stuck in a ...

First introduced in 2022, it offers a "comprehensive support package, including funding, capacity-building, and networking" to refugee-led-organisations (RLOs) transforming the lives of ...

In March this year, the Kenyan government unveiled a comprehensive plan to transform the country's refugee camps into self-reliant, integrated settlements, allowing refugees and host ...

In this context, six refugee camps are analysed regarding landscape dynamics, including ground, infrastructural and ecological relations. The findings demonstrate that the right-to-landscape ...

Despite immense challenges, refugee youth are making strides in education, sustainability and healthcare. They are tackling the world's most urgent issues--not in the distant future, but ...

Web: <https://kindanewdecor.co.za>

