Why should you attend MFT energy?

At MFT Energy, finding sustainable energy solutions is a key priority, and we're excited to actively support and drive the green transition. If you're attending the conference, we'd love to meet and discuss potential collaborations.

How does the South African energy transition work?

South Africa has advanced its energy transition towards a diversified, low-carbon, and inclusive energy system. The project supports the South African energy transition through four key pillars: Providing advisory services to liberalise the electricity industry and update policies and regulations, fostering a dynamic and competitive energy market.

How can South Africa become a key player in Africa's energy sector?

Godfrey Moagi emphasised SANPC's ambition to establish South Africa as a critical player in Africa's energy sector by prioritizing local content, fostering regional partnerships, and implementing state-supported strategies.

Should South Africa build a future with energy projects?

Ms Boshoff said together, South Africans should build a future where energy projects become a symbol of hope, opportunity, and transformation. "Let us create a society where the marginalised have a fair chance to succeed, where empowerment is meaningful, and where our collective efforts pave the way for a brighter tomorrow."

What is South Africa's just energy transition (jet)?

In 2021, South Africa's Just Energy Transition (JET) was officially launched during COP26. The International Partner Group (IPG), consisting of the European Union, France, Germany, the United Kingdom, and the United States, made a landmark commitment of US$ 8.5 billion.

How can sanpc help bolster energy security in southern Africa?

SANPC's vision extends beyond national borders, with Moagi advocating for greater regional collaboration to bolster energy security across Southern Africa. During the panel, Maggy Shino, Namibia's Petroleum Commissioner, and Katia Epalanga from Angola's Sonangol joined Moagi in exploring opportunities for cross-border partnerships.
