

September 7, 2013, marks the 45 year anniversary since Led Zeppelin played their very first concert. Now the British rock stars are getting a special plaque right where it all began; in a primary school in Gladsaxe. In Denmark, Led Zeppelin made themselves into rock history September 7, 1968. There was, as we know, many interesting things around the world ...

Hardback 160 pages, 185 Illustrations, colour. When Led Zeppelin came to Denmark in the late 60s, the locals barely knew what hit them. Photographer Jorgen Angel was there. Here, he talks to Dave Lewis about his new book, one that captures the band at their most thrillingly raw and explosively potent. Danish born Jorgen Angel has the distinction of being the first photographer ...

In 1972, 92% of Denmark's energy consumption came from imported oil. [19] The 1973 oil crisis forced Denmark to rethink its energy policy; in 1978 coal contributed 18%, and the Tvind wind turbine was built, along with the creation of a wind turbine industry. [20] The 1979 energy crisis pushed further change, and in 1984 the North Sea natural gas projects began. [21]
